

The Master Called.

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Obituary

Jessie Murial Hampton-Williams 80 years old of Newark, New Jersey was born November 11, 1937 to the late Francis Lee Hampton and the late Jessie Lee Hampton in Mt. Vernon, Alabama. On June 27, 2018 God sent an angel to escort his daughter home from Alaris Health Care Center in Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

Jessie received her education from the St. Peter's School system in Mt. Vernon, Alabama. Jessie left Alabama at a very early age. She met and married Henry Lee Williams and they had three children before moving to New Jersey.

Jessie was a homemaker who once worked as a waitress, loved to cook, sing and listen to Gospel music. She also loved taking care of her family and she had a very good heart that loved life. Jessie knew and loved the Lord Jesus Christ at very early age. The last church she attended was The Last Day Baptist Church. Jessie adored her son-in-law Joe L. Fordham who helped take care of her and treated her as if she was his own mother.

Jessie leaves behind to cherish her memory, three children and their spouses: Philander Hampton (Sylvia), Veronica Fordham (Joe L. Fordham) and Irby Lee Williams, and one sister Elnora Hampton (Alabama), her granddaughters: Lateefah Davis Martin, Zakkiyyah Williams, Andrea Williams, Zakiyah Williams, her grandsons: Hassan Williams and Kalif Davis and 13 great-grandchildren, 1 great-great-granddaughter and a host of relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband Henry Lee Williams, her daughter Jennifer Willams and her son Fredrick O'Neal Williams.

Lovingly Submitted
