

“God Saw You Getting Tired”

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, “Come to me”

With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
And though we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard-working hands at rest
And although our hearts were broken
We know God knows best.

Obituary

“Remembering You”

Jimmie Lee Wright was born September 4, 1958 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Ever Lee Wright and Carolina Wright. He went home to eternal rest on September 30, 2014 at Summit Ridge Nursing and Rehab in West Orange, NJ.

Jimmie received his education in the Newark Public School system. After being hurt at a very young age, he joined a program at Newark Services Corp. where he learned how to operate an engraving machine.

He was preceded in death by his mother Ever Lee Wright, one sister, Barbara Ann Austin, and two brothers, Wilbert and Freddie Austin. Jimmie leaves to cherish his memory one son, Shaheed King; his father Carolina Wright; one brother Johnny C. Austin of Hawkinsville, GA; a daughter-in-law Shumeanna Pittman King; and five grandchildren: Shaquan Pittman King, Malik Pittman King, Sabrea King, Tzhre (Tazaree) King, and Terrell Bagley. His memory will also be cherished by his nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.
