

“Good Bye Family”

Good Bye Family, I had to go, but there's something
I want you to know, I enjoyed you while I had life,
I had to cross over with my father Jesus Christ.
Don't you cry, don't shed a tear just look up and my love will appear so good bye daughter, good bye son O don't let me forget my little one I'll see you soon
one day just remember I am OK go on and live your life
you will soon cross over with Jesus Christ Don't weep or mourn because you will all be called home,
Good Bye, Good Bye love you all.
Just remember don't let my death
let you fall hold on tight I'll see you soon, Goodnight.

Obituary

On Saturday June 21, 2014, God sent an angel to bring his son Deacon John I. McClary, home from East Orange General Hospital, East Orange, New Jersey. With his loving wife, Doris, by his side, he transitioned to his new home up high.

Deacon John Isaiah McClary was born in Danville, Virginia on July 23, 1939 to the late Isaiah and Lucille McClary. John was raised in Danville, Virginia. He received his education in Danville, Virginia and graduated from John Langston High School.

Deacon McClary accepted Jesus Christ at an early age while attending Mt. Sinai Glorious Baptist Church. He relocated to New Jersey then became a long time member of Trinity Baptist Church of Newark, New Jersey. John served his church faithfully as an Usher, Trustee, and Deacon until his health declined. He also was a member of the Male Choirs, Sanctuary and Senior Choir.

Deacon McClary enjoyed Classic cars also. He was often seen driving around in his vintage Ford "Crown Victoria".

Deacon McClary was employed as a Truck Driver by Allied Vanlines for 30 years and also was employed by Global Transport for 20 years. He retired from Staples and Office Max in 2004 as a Truck Driver.

Deacon McClary, A.K.A. "Mack" is gone home, but he will never be forgotten. He was preceded in death by his late wife, Ruby McClary, three brothers, Harry, Woodrow, and Lyman.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife of twelve years Doris McClary; sister Ann Holly; daughter, Stephanie Williamson; son, Gregory McClary, four grandchildren; Simera Pack, Karl Williamson, Norelco and Yanhitle Caroll, two great-grandchildren, Stepdaughter, Khaleeah; his mother in law Martha Tann, three brothers in law, two sisters in law and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted
