

Serenity

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can,
and Wisdom to know the difference.

Obituary

Lilliemae Georgette Williams was born on October 31, 1962 to the late Sandra L. Merritt Williams and the late John Edward McKay in Stamford, Connecticut. She departed this life April 7, 2018 in East Orange, NJ.

Lilliemae was known as Georgette to many. She was raised in Scotch Plains, NJ and attended Terrill Junior High School and Scotch Plains Fanwood High School. Later, Georgette relocated to South Carolina where she attended Estill High School. While in South Carolina, she met Bill Randolph, who became family to her.

In 1998, Georgette received an Outstanding Achievement Award from CareerWorks in Newark upon completing the Secretary & Computerized Customer Service program.

In 2001, Georgette graduated with honors from the Chubb Institute in Jersey City where she studied Computer Technical Support.

In 2011, Georgette became a Certified Alcohol Drug Counselor (CADC) through the Organization for Recovery in Plainfield.

Georgette was very influential in the City of East Orange. She ran for councilwoman of East Orange, and lost by only one vote!

Georgette worked for 5 ½ years (1999 – 2005) at the Division of Training and Employment in East Orange where she gained the respect and praise of her colleagues and supervisors.

In her personal time she loved watching sports, especially basketball. Her team was the Boston Celtics.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Sandra L. Merritt Williams; her father, John Edward McKay; and her nephew, Jeffrey Thomas.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children: Juliet Mendez, Trevor and Louis Williams, her granddaughter: Lila Gem Williams, her Siblings: Denise Williams-Brown, Maryann Sigl, Suzanne Williams, John McKay, Sandra McKay, LaHonda Edwards, and Casandra Johnson, her nephews: Joey, Jordan, Nicholas, Malakhi and Jonathan: her nieces: Elaine, Lenise, Angelyne, and Christina, her uncle and aunt: Grady and Rosa Harmon, her Loved ones: Julio Mendez, Terrance Brangman, and Allen Thomas, her Brothers in Laws: Lenny Watts, Sonny Brown, Ron Sigl, and a host of other relatives and friends.
