Obituary

Cornelius Hunter aka Danny, DonDon, Mas Papi son, was born on March 28, 1944 to the union of the late Alexander Hunter and Iris Neil in Kingston, Jamaica West Indies.

Cornelius received his formal education at Jubilee Town School in Jubilee, Saint Catherine, West Indies. Cornelius accepted Christ as his Savior at Seven Day Adventist Church in his early age and was united with serving God in various places of worship.

Cornelius was united in holy matrimony with Naomi (Richards) Hunter on September 27, 1971 in Kingston, Jamaica (WI). Their union was blessed with 8 Children. He was a family man who was adored and respected by his wife, children and everybody who met him. He instilled family values, morals and great work ethics in his children and was very proud of the men and women they had become.

He was employed by DePaola Monument Company as a Stone Cutter and Setter, Masonry and "Anything and Everything- Non-stop" for 35+ years. He was known by many Cemeteries and Monument Installers for his kindness and dedication to his work. In his leisure he enjoyed "A Cold Red Stripe Beer, Playing Dominos, listening to Jamaican music and cooling out in "him" back yard. We can't leave out his love to Play the Pick-it. Cornelius may not be here on earth, but he will never be forgotten." Ya mon!" you will forever be in our hearts

He was preceded in death by his brothers Ranford, Alvin, his sisters Iclind (Enda), Eula, and Joyce, and his son Carlton.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Naomi Hunter, his amazing sons: Stafford, Tyrone, Everton, Fidel, Markland, (twin sons) Edward and Roland, and his goddaughter: Chenique Commock. He was blessed with 19 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews and In-laws, relatives and many, many, friends.
